Dog bite victim will receive settlement

Posted: Thursday, November 7, 2013 12:07 am

BY JARRAD HEDES Times Staff Writer | 0 comments

A Fairfield couple will receive a $300,000 settlement after their daughter was attacked by a neighbor's pit bull, according to the family's lawyer.

"This is, by any stretch, a significant amount of money to come away with in an Adams County setting," said Thomas Newell, the attorney who filed a civil lawsuit in Adams County on behalf of Brooke-Ann's parents, Andrew and Melissa Boyd.
